Scroll of Reflection — Control, Mislabeling, and Escalation

Date of Publication: 13 September 2025

This scroll is the lawful public testimony of Alin-Vasile of the House of Mureșan, living man, Beneficiary and Executor of the estate.

I perceive a growing pattern of control through new Acts and Statutes, where each crisis or tragic event becomes a pretext for greater restrictions. The recent calls for capital punishment and the confident declarations of “we got him” stand as signs of a shift toward harsher measures and the conditioning of the public to accept the State as final arbiter over life and death.

I also note the tendency of authorities and media to group different belief systems together — for example, placing Mormons in the same basket as Christians — which is a misrepresentation and blurring of truth. This equalisation creates justification for blanket policies and further control over worship and conscience.

I witness and testify that these patterns reveal a convergence of statutory law and global policy toward a system of total control. The solution remains to stand in honour, rebut false presumptions, correct the record, and remain under Natural and Divine Law and Lex Mercatoria rather than corporate statutes.

In Witness and Honour, this scroll is published on the public record as part of the Court Room of Records, to warn and to call all men and women to step into the living jurisdiction and administer their estates in truth.
