Part II Beast Unveiled Digital ID QR CODES Cestui Que Vie Trust Act 1666

Scroll of the Beast Code – 1 and 666 Unveiled PART II From 1666 to Digital ID, QR Codes, and 666 – The Mark of the Beast

1. The Original Beast – 1666
In the year 1666, under the shadow of the Great Fire of London, the Cestui Que Vie Act declared the living to be "lost at sea" if not proven alive.

- A trust was created over every man, woman, and child.
- A NAME in all capitals became the property of the Crown and Vatican system.
- Birth certificates became the evidence of a dead entity, a legal fiction drifting in maritime commerce.
  This was the birth of the beast system in law – the lie that the living man is dead.

2. The Remodelled Beast – Digital Age
Today, the old maritime snare has become a digital ocean:

- Digital ID and Facial Recognition – the "mark" on the face and in the hand.
- QR Codes and Barcodes – the numbering of commerce, the counting of souls.
- AI Surveillance and Data Control – the image of the beast that speaks, sees, and enforces.
- CBDC and Digital Money – controlling who can buy or sell, as foretold in Revelation 13.
  The beast of 1666 has risen from the sea as the modern digital beast.

3. 666 — The Mark and Its Image
"Here is wisdom… for it is the number of a man: and his number is six hundred threescore and six." (Rev 13:18)

- 6 — Commercial statutes, codes, and contracts.
- 6 — Digital surveillance and AI recognition.
- 6 — The worship of data and control as god.
  The mark is not only physical but jurisdictional and spiritual:
  He who lives in fiction and commerce bears the mark.
  He who lives in truth and the Lamb's blood overcomes the beast.

4. The Path of the Overcomer
The living man walks above the sea of commerce, like Peter walking on water.

- He declares: I am living. I am redeemed. I am not the NAME.
- He keeps the testimony of Jesus and the blood of the Lamb as his shield.
- He overcomes by testimony and by separation from fiction.

5. Final Warning to Babylon
The beast system will fall.
Those who worship its image and take its mark will share in its judgement.
Those who stand in truth, honour, and faith will inherit the kingdom that cannot be shaken.
