Security By Way of Lien — Eric Abetz & Treasury Tasmania Commercial Default

Eric Abetz Lien — $708,100,000 AUD Security by Way of Lien

On 18 July 2025, a Security by Way of Lien was formally issued to Eric Abetz (acting as Attorney-General of Tasmania / Treasury Tasmania) in the amount of $708,100,000 AUD.

This lien was established following his:

- Refusal to grant remedy or diplomatic immunity;
- Refusal to acknowledge the living man and lawful Beneficiary & Executor of the estate, Alin-Vasile of the House of Muresan;
- Ongoing fiduciary misconduct operating as a false executor of the NAME.

Cumulative Liability

This lien forms part of the $2.1 billion AUD in commercial liability across multiple Tasmanian public officers, arising from:

1. Continued dishonour and administrative evasion of the Cestui Que Vie Trust remedy;
2. Failure by Treasury & Finance Tasmania (including Guy Barnett, Treasurer) to respond to:
    - Lawful notices
    - Statutory declarations

- Affidavits and voice calls from the living man

3. False execution of the NAMEs:
   MR ALIN VASILE MURESAN
   MRS LOREDANA ADINA MURESAN
   and refusal to extend remedy for the living heirs Samuel-James and Olivia-Jasmine.

Note: Liens will continue to increase as fiduciaries exploit the NAME across Council Rates, Licensing, ATO, Medicare, Superannuation, and other instruments without remedy.

Administrative Avoidance Evidence

- Eric Abetz failed to collect mail from Burnie Post Shop (RPP44637005100175559876O3), later returned to sender, confirming avoidance.
- Original lien service via Registered Post: RPP44637005100175559996O6.
