Anthem of the Living – House of Muresan

We are the living – not forged in the State,

Born by the Spirit, not registered fate.

Our names are not numbers, our worth not in gold,

We walk with the Ancient of Days – bold.

Verse 2

This house is a covenant, sealed from above,

Not built by the system, but founded in love.

No fiction may bind us, no paper define –

We rise by the promise, eternal, divine.

Chorus □□

By this banner we stand, by this truth we live,

House of Muresan – to whom God did give.

Olivia, Samuel, Loredana too,

Alin-Vasile – the Lord walks with you.

Verse 3

Our land is made sacred by hands that are clean,

Tending the soil, not chasing the scheme.

No birthright for sale, no estate in their name –

Our dominion is holy, and never for shame.

Bridge

They may ask who we are — but the scrolls know the call,

We are not the dead — we are risen from the fall.

We sing not for nations, nor kings of the land,

But to the Lord who holds us in His hand.

Final Chorus □□

By this banner we stand, by this name we live,

House of Muresan — to whom God did give.

A house set apart, with the truth as our shield —

We walk with the Lion, we never shall yield.
