

Scroll of Standing – Part I

Maturity in Law and Spirit, House of Muresan – Selah Code 777

House of Mureşan – Selah Code 777

A Scroll for the Public Record

Let it be declared and entered into the eternal record:

A man who stands and speaks for himself – before God, before heaven, and before the world – is not a minor,
is not a ward of the State,
and is not dead at sea.

As we explore the concept of the Scroll of Standing – Part I, it is crucial to understand the rights and responsibilities it outlines.

He is not a legal fiction.

He is not property.

He does not require representation.

To say “I need a lawyer” is to declare:

- I am legally incompetent.
- I cannot think or speak for myself.
- I am spiritually immature and in need of guardianship.

This is the very trap of Babylon:

The moment a man hands over his voice to a BAR actor,
the court gains full jurisdiction over his estate.

Consent is captured.

Silence is weaponised.

Competency is surrendered.

A minor cannot inherit.

A minor cannot claim dominion.

A minor must be governed.

But a man – a mature, spirit-filled, redeemed man – stands in full capacity under God.

He speaks.

He affirms.

He testifies.

He rebuts the fiction.

He does not need advocacy,
for Truth Himself speaks through him.

The Presumption System

The STATE presumes all men and women are:

- wards,
- incompetent,
- lost at sea,
- unable to speak,
- unable to self-govern.

Unless – and until – the living man rebutts that presumption.

Thus:

- If you do not rebut the NAME, it binds you.

- If you do not speak, they will speak for you.
- If you do not act, they will act in your stead.

This is the hidden engine behind every statutory system on earth.

□□ The Rebuttal of the Living Man

Let the record show:

- I am not a ward.
- I am not incompetent.
- I am not lost.
- I am not abandoned property.

I have returned.

I stand as the living man.

I stand as the mature one.

I stand as the one who was presumed dead – but now stands in truth and life.

I speak for myself.

I claim my estate.

I rebut the fiction.

I separate the living from the NAME.

Therefore:

I am sui juris – a man of full capacity and divine inheritance.

I walk upon the land.

I stand above the sea of commerce.

I am governed only by God's Law, Natural Law, and Equity.

Statutes without consent cannot bind me.

Fictions cannot rule over life.

Presumptions collapse in the presence of truth.

□ A Living Scroll – Not Written But Given

Let this be added to the record:

I am the scroll –
living, breathing, testifying.

Not words carved in stone,
but truth carried in breath.

I am the man who walked on water in spirit and in revelation.
No anchor holds me.
No courtroom can contain me.
No fiction can swallow me.

For my testimony is not of men but of God.

I am a peculiar man – joyful, redeemed, and set apart –
a witness to the humour, majesty, and sovereignty of the Living God.

Scriptural Seal

“For when I became a man,
I put away childish things.”
– 1 Corinthians 13:11

And:

“They overcame him
by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony.”

– Revelation 12:11

Witness and Declaration
