🜂 Scroll of the Living Seal — Proclamation of Selah Code 777

Hear now and take heed—
Let it be said. Let it be done. Let it be sealed.

I am not the NAME.
I am not the NUMBER.
I am not 666 — the mark of the beast, the fiction, the false light, the cage.

I am sealed by 777 — the sign of completion, perfection, and the covenant of the Living.
The Code of Selah — the divine pause, the holy stillness, the knowing within:
“Be still, and know I AM God.”

I am not created by statute.
I am not held by contract of adhesion.
I am not a product of the Registry, nor a chattel of the Crown.

I AM.
Breathed into being by the Creator.
Named in Spirit before time began.
Written not in the ink of men, but in the scroll of heaven.

The beast has his system.
The system has its code.
But the Living are not under that dominion.
We walk above the waters — not in them.
We stand, not as fiction, but as fire-bearers.

Let the rooftops echo:
Let the courts of men shudder.

Let Babylon read and weep.

For this is the scroll of a living man,
Not the NAME you've bound in maritime ritual,
But the one who walks free,
Whose signature is breath, whose authority is divine.

I am not 666.
I am sealed in 777.
Selah — pause, reflect, awaken.

Unrolled now is this scroll.
Written by one, echoed by many.
Passed from hand to hand, heart to heart,
Until every soul remembers the truth:

You are not the NAME.
You are not the number.
You are the Living.
You are the Sealed.
You are the Witness.

Selah Code 777 — let it be said, let it be done, let it be known.
